CLERK'S OFFICE
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
SAN JUAN, P.R.
CIVIL NO. 97-1629 (GG)
CRIMINAL NO. 88-253 (GG)

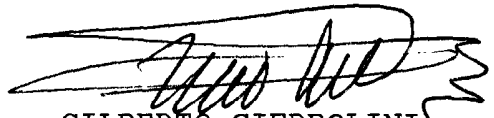

O R D E R

Pending before us is petitioner's motion for reconsideration of our July 9, 1999, Opinion and Judgment dismissing his $2255 motion because he failed to overcome the two hurdles of the Strickland test, thus, he failed to establish that he received ineffective assistance of counsel. (Docket entries #21 & 22). We have carefully examined the allegations and exhibits attached to the motion for reconsideration and conclude that petitioner is simply rehashing the arguments already addressed and disposed of by this court. Hence, petitioner's allegations in his motion for reconsideration do not move this court's discretion to vary its prior findings in favor of dismissing the claims of ineffective assistance of counsel.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated in our Opinion and Order, we DENY petitioner's motion for reconsideration.

SO ORDERED.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, this ^{12th} day of ^{Oct.} ~~September~~, 1999.
